

ST. LAWRENCE COLLEGE

Continuing Education Department

We are pleased to offer the following course which may be of interest to you:

Church Music Fundamentals

This course provides a unique series of lectures and workshops of practical use for individuals at various levels with varied interests who desire more formal training in the art of church music in the basic duties of service-playing and choir directing. In particular the course will materially assist students who wish to prepare for the Royal Canadian College of Organists service-playing certificate. Content will include: historical background of hymns, hymn selection and accompanying on the organ; organ technique in service playing, including voluntaries, sight reading, and registration accompanying the choir; choral management and technique. Classes will be held at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, where points of organ technique and hymn-playing can be demonstrated at the organ console and at St. Mary's Cathedral. No prerequisite is required.

Instructors: Ian Bevell/Aurora Dokken.
